press release

Sunday 11 March 2007

The Nepal Peace Pagoda, South Bank Parklands, Brisbane, Queensland, Australia

500th World Expo '88 Network Guide Pamphlet Received at the Nepal Peace Pagoda

Ms Robyn Hair, 500th Recipient of the World Expo '88 Network Guide Pamphlet, launched at the Nepal Peace Pagoda, South Bank Parklands, in December 2006, smiles with Foundation Founder and Executive Director John McGregor. Ms Hair was today the lucky recipient of the 500th Brisbane World Expo '88 Network Guide December 2006 Edition 1.0 Pamphlet, which have been given out in person at the Pagoda during the Foundation's and The Friends of the Pagoda Association's 'Pagoda on Sundays' weekly commemorative program at the Pagoda. Here Ms Hair receives a Congratulatory 500th Pamphlet Commemorative Certificate, and an original Baby 'Expo Oz' Official World Expo '88 Mascot, as special token gifts for this historic occasion.

The Nepal Peace Pagoda, of Brisbane's World Expo '88, is one of Brisbane City's most significant items of World Expo '88 heritage, and is located at the transformed South Bank Parklands, the former World Expo '88 site, and joins with South Bank Parklands, the Japan Pond & Garden from the Japan Pavilion - now at Brisbane's Mt Coot-tha Botanic Gardens, and the Stefan Sky Needle - the Expo's 88-metre high symbol tower, as the stars of the Pamphlet - a principal promotion for the 20th Anniversary of Expo in 2008. This phase of the Pamphlet's activities marks the start of the Pamphlet's distribution throughout a diverse range of cultural and tourism venues throughout the City of Brisbane. For further information, contact Founder and Executive Director of Foundation Expo '88, John McGregor, at executivedirector@foundationexpo88.org, or via mobile [+614397] (04397) 34018.
