VOLUNTEER RESEARCHER/WRITER/WEBMASTER REQUIRED
Pavilions Pages Foundation Expo '88
JUNE - OCTOBER 2006

Foundation Expo '88 and The Friends of the Pagoda Association are looking for a Researcher/Writer/Webmaster to complete several key last components of the Foundation Expo '88 website, which will have on-line and data-booth display attributes, and involve the following tasks:

1. Comprehensive Research on each Pavilion, Participant, and open air exhibition at World Expo '88 - from several independent sources, which can include Guide Books, retrospectives, independent research, as well as information obtained by personal interview. This may also involve liaison with government and non-government entities. The research should include text, photograph, and image elements, which will need to be translated to digital formats, i.e. Word .DOC, .JPG, etc.
2. Creating a Pavilion-by-Pavilion listing for each Participant, 5 (five) paragraphs of one hundred (100) words each, with 20 photographs per Pavilion/Participant. Photographs to be rendered in .JPG format at end of page, as thumbnails, in four (4) rows of five (5), clickable to 640x480px.
3. Designing HTML document template for each listing, incorporating text, image, and photograph elements as described. Template and media located in the template should be optimized for instantaneous internet access, allowing no more than a five (5) second wait for a 56kpbs internet connection.

Responsible to:

Responsible to the Executive Director of Foundation Expo '88, John McGregor, with once-per-week liaison.

Date of Completion:

To start June and end October 2006.
